ANZAC CENTENARY DRAWS BIG CROWDS

Balingup Centenary ANZAC Service

Big crowds turned out to commemorate the Centenary of ANZAC at Greenbushes and Balingup on 25 April 2015.

More than 500 people surrounded the small historic memorial at Greenbushes for the Dawn Service and more than a hundred also attended the Balingup Commemoration Service at the town's memorial.

The Greenbushes service commenced with a march, led by pipers Ross Campbell and his grandson Angus and local musician Rob Hesketh on the drum. A highlight of the service was the participation by the Bridgetown Jubilee Singers whose repertoire included In Memoriam (The Ode). At Balingup the march started at Birdwood Park Avenue of Honour and proceeded to the War Memorial. Pictured above left are scouts Laura Ross and Rhyllie Scarriotts laying a wreath at the Greenbushes War Memorial and pictured right (left to right) are Balingup Primary School students Oran Kennedy, Benjamin Wedderburn, Katie Guest, Yali Harris and Stephanie Aldridge with teacher Tanya Armstrong. Greenbushes had one of its highest attendances at the Centenary of ANZAC Dawn Service on April 25 with more than 500 people turning out for the event.

The march was led by three representatives from the South West Light Horse Brigade with pipers Ross Campbell and his grandson Angus and drummer Rob Hesketh following closely behind.

Marchers assembled at the War Memorial on Blackwood Road as the Jubilee Singers sang a number of hymns including "The Ode"

Guest speaker at this year's event was the Hon Robyn McSweeney, South West MLC. Sophie Wheeler from Bridgetown read a poem at the service.

Local resident Edna Fryer laid the Centenary Wreath on behalf of the community and then followed a wreath laying ceremony featuring individuals, community groups and businesses.

After the ceremony more than 250 people took the opportunity to enjoy the Greenbushes RSL's "Gunfire Breakfast" at the District Hall.

Volunteers from the RSL laid on sausages, bacon and baked beans for the large crowd of people who lined up to share the breakfast.

This year the RSL had a display featuring sandbags and firearms and profiles of some of the town's World War 1 soldiers were featured in a pictorial display on pin up boards inside the hall.

Nurse Charlotte Letitia Despard served in the Queen Alexandra Nursing Corps after signing up with the Army while working as Matron at the Greenbushes Hospital. Brothers Alfred and Edmund Rawnsley were given a farewell party at Greenbushes before they departed from Fremantle to serve in the Pioneer Corps and Trooper John Bede (Jack) Fogarty also left Greenbushes to serve in World War 1. All returned safely from the conflict.

The Greenbushes RSL unveiled its new commemorative plaques at the event. The plaques were funded by a grant obtained by the Shire of Bridgetown Greenbushes in association with the RSL from Lotterywest and grants from the South West Development Commission and the Department of Veterans Affairs Local Centenary Grants Programme administered through the office of the Federal Member for O'Connor Mr Rick Wilson.

BALINGUP COMMEMORATES ANZAC CENTENARY WITH TEA AND STORIES

More than 200 people attended the Balingup Centenary ANZAC Service on April 25.

The day began early at Birdwood Park Avenue of Honor with stories of soldiers from the district who lost their lives in their duty to the country. Visitors enjoyed a “billie tea” catered by the Balingup Lions Club as they listened to and shared stories about the town’s war history.

At 10.30am 100 marchers gathered at Birdwood Bridge to “Fall In” for the march to the War Memorial in the centre of town, Marshalled by Pat Scallan and led by Ken Walker from Newlands representing the Lighthorse Brigade. Jane Widdup carried the flag.

Another 100 people stood to attention as the marchers arrived at the Memorial Service that was conducted by Bill Gardner. Balingup School Children read out 54 names of those service men from the Balingup district who lost their lives. Local schoolboy Angus Christenson recited a poem of the landing at Gallipoli.

Wreaths were laid and songs sung in great appreciation of this 100 year celebration, remembrance and the sacrifice made for our country.

Thank you to the CWA ladies who produced 14 wreaths, Jill Duncan for the organ accompaniment and Russell Price for the sound system.

ROSEMARY AND POPPIES FOR GREENBUSHES REMEMBRANCE

Greenbushes Community Resource Centre Craft Club members Edna Fryer and Molly Hardy were busy in the lead up to ANZAC Day creating wreaths and floral displays using poppies and rosemary.

They presented their creations to local business proprietors Sharen Petterson at the Greenbushes Roadhouse and Shannon Fraser Butler from Cakes by Tasty Edibles in the week leading up to the ANZAC Centenary.

On the day of the ANZAC Dawn Service Edna Fryer laid the "Centenary Wreath" they created at the War Memorial.

The ladies estimate they created around 100 handmade fabric poppies to use in the wreath and shop displays.

Greenbushes Primary School students also marked the Centenary of ANZAC with a special commemoration service on April 23 which was attended by the whole school and community and RSL members.

Students read poems and laid wreaths at the memorial as part of the service. Greenbushes RSL President Ron Adair addressed the service and urged students to seek to be courageous and brave in the way of the ANZACs. Mr Adair related the ANZACs experience to "standing up for your mates" in the context of fighting against bullying behaviour at school. See photographs on facing page.

CRC Coordinator's Column

Easter School Holiday Program – we had a good response to the activities for the children this Easter.

Whilst we had 4 Greenbushes families sign up there was plenty of support from Bridgetown and Balingup. The making fresh pasta with Luke was a hit with everyone and their pasta was delicious – thanks Luke. Tracy Lansdell came with a few buckets of river rocks and we had a very relaxing morning creating awesome pieces of artwork. Other days involved painting, sewing, model building, quilling, card-making and making coasters with mosaic tiles! A huge thank you to the volunteers who helped make this a success, Molly Hardy, Edna Fryer, Tracy Lansdell and Andy Hardy. Time to start planning July winter break! SCHOOL HOLIDAY FUN—Buttons, pasta, rocks and fabric.....

Thank you to the volunteers of the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre – thinking of the many hours given by members of our community to assist in the delivery of services and events, as well as the committee members. The number of people who regularly provide volunteers support is huge! Thanks to Helen, Edna, Molly, Felicity, Marion, Jill, Rosemary, Vicky, Debbie, Margaret, Nicola, Chris, Don, Sue, Tracy, Ray, Heather, Bobcat. Thanks to the Talison maintenance crew who manage to fix those difficult jobs promptly for us too! Please try to attend the Shire event on Wed 13th May at 6-8pm at Bridgetown Pottery to thank the volunteers for their outstanding contributions.

Would you like to try using an iPad? – We have a few iPads now for you to try before considering purchasing one. Come and see Helen on a Wednesday where she will be happy to show you the basics plus we have some on-line training you can participate in. Take the plunge! Molly has and is the proud owner of an iPad mini now to Skype her family all over the world.... The gift of iPad training should be eagerly taken up by our seniors. The program Helen offers includes: switching on and off, airplane modes, settings, volume, connecting to WiFi, introduction to the Internet and downloading Apps, using the camera and sending/saving messages. We intend to continue iPad training this year as clearly there is a need for it within our community.

DIGGING THE GREENBUSHES GARDEN

We had a very busy and successful day running our stall at the Balingup Small Farm Field Day.

Hundreds of people came by to either have a chat or purchase garlic, seeds and pickles. There was a lot of interest in our photo setup, in which we had on display a photo timeline of the garden's progress and events since its inception.

There was a lot of information and inspiration given to the crowds about how to look after the native bees in our backyards, with both the talks at the black stump on this topic well attended.

We had a separate photo display in our stall which showcased garden art pieces that have a dual function of looking fantastic and providing nesting areas for native bees. And we sold out of the bee hotels we had made out of recycled tins and bamboo.

It was a great fundraising opportunity for the garden and I want to say a big thanks to all those who helped. Firstly, to Ian McGuire & Leanne Green from GAM who kindly donated their time and stationary for all our printing and laminating. Thanks to Talison for the use of their display boards and a big thanks to our members who helped us make this a successful day out.

It's going to be a social month at the garden, with our usual morning tea first up – on May 2nd at 9.30. Then we will be having a couple of groups come to the garden, firstly from Silver Chain and then the Donnybrook Gardening Club ladies are returning to come and see the progress since their first visit nearly 12 months ago.

Looking forward to all it, see you in the garden soon.

RECORD CROWD FOR BALINGUP FIELD DAY

Beautiful sunny weather helped to draw a record crowd to the 25th annual Balingup Field Day in April.

Visitors enjoyed hundreds of varied displays from live animals through to machinery. Shearing demonstrations, environmentally focused activities at the Black Stump, the Fashion Parade and Kid's Kitchen provided plenty to keep people entertained.

The Talison Lithium sponsored sand-pit and climbing wall also proved to be a hit with the crowd. Local scouts helped to man the entertainment hub.

Blackwood Basin Group Update

The Priority Bittern and Waterbird Biodiversity Enhancement Project, coordinated by the Blackwood Basin Group (BBG), has continued to make progress with lots of action at the site.

The four year project, funded by the Australian Government, aims to create a wetland haven at Schwenke's Dam, Greenbushes, to attract critically endangered waterbirds.

Balingup Small farm Field Day

BBG Chairman Dr Per Christensen presented an entertaining and informative talk at the Black Stumps Talks Program on the topic of creating wetland habitat for endangered bird species.

Per discussed the work carried so far and the vision for the area as outlined in the BBG's Concept Plan, which is available in hard copy form at the Greenbushes CRC.

Revegetation

Conservation Volunteers Australia (CVA) were recently at the Schwenke's Dam for a week to plant 10,000 seedlings, volunteers came from all over the world; Japan, France, Costa Rica, Czech Republic, England, and Zimbabwe.

It was a great chance for the volunteers to learn new skills, learn about Australian wetlands, and to participate in a project that will see great changes occurring in the coming years. Wetland revegetation establishes much more quickly than other habitats and the volunteers are keenly following the process by liking the Blackwood Basin Group on Facebook.

Dam modification

Work at Charnley's is now finished which is an area to the north of the Greenbushes Pool near Dumppling Gully.

The water-bodies have been modified so that water can be held longer and areas have been ripped so that vegetation has a greater chance of establishing and reproducing. 8 truckloads of mature rushes were also planted at Charnley's and 7 at Schwenkes Dam to speed up the establishment of reed-beds which will make ideal habitat for many species of waterbirds.

Sedges were relocated to both Charnley's Dam and Schwenke's Dam.

This project is supported by the Blackwood Basin Group, through funding from the Australian Government.

Blackwood Basin Group Update

1080 baiting

1080 baits for the control of foxes and rabbits were laid at Schwenke's Dam and on the active mine site.

Any untaken baits were collected and disposed of at the Beginning of May, however, dog walkers and people with pets are advised to be extremely cautious in the area for the month of May as pets that consume poisoned carcasses can die from secondary poisoning.

Using a lead or avoiding the area is the best approach to keep your animals safe.

Greenbushes Wetland Invertebrate Project

The bug collecting volunteers have been excited to use our new piece of equipment that turns an iPad or tablet into a microscope, we are now able to photograph our specimens much more quickly. BBG Project Officer Joby Rand said the new equipment would enable the group to produce a field guide to the bugs found at the Project sites.

Nestboxes

Boyup Brook District High School are well underway in constructing the final 10 cockatoo nest-boxes and these will be installed in the coming weeks.

Also, during maintenance of the nest-boxes that were previously installed we found that two were inhabited by Brush-tailed Phascogales and one by a Brush-tailed Possum. See the picture on this page.

Get involved

Community engagement is key to the success of this project. We are on Facebook and are keeping our followers up to date with photos and posts of our activities! ## Recipes and stories needed for Greenbushes cookbook

Greenbushes Primary School P and C mums are seeking recipes, handy hints, cleaning tips and stories about Greenbushes for a unique cookbook.

The group is also seeking pictures drawn by students for inclusion on the cover and inside the book.

Recipes for special dietary requirements such as gluten free and diabetics are also sought.

People can drop their recipes, tips and stories into the Greenbushes Roadhouse or send them to greenbushespandc@hotmail.com.

The P and C is hoping the book will be a popular keepsake with memories of Greenbushes and many and varied recipes. Please support the girls in this great initiative.
