INSECTS AND BUGS UNDER THE MICROSCOPE AT GREENBUSHES

During a recent activity at the bush block across from the school students collected small insects and bugs to examine the biodiversity in the forest.

Discovering the tiny differences and minute details of the creepy crawlies back in the classroom was made easy using a purpose built microscope and ipad provided by the Blackwood Basin Group.

Project Officer Joby Rand assisted students to view their insect collection on an ipad.

Students also learned about a large collection of macro-invertebrate specimens collected by community volunteers at Schwenke's Dam as part of the group's Priority Bittern and Waterbird Biodiversity Project.

The small specimens have been preserved in glass bottles which are stored at the Blackwood Basin Group's office at the Greenbushes Community Garden.

Students at Greenbushes Primary School are making regular trips to the bush block to carry out science based activities with staff from Talison Lithium and Global Advanced Metals. See more photos inside this edition on the Blackwood Basin pages.

Kimberley Tale Author to Visit Greenbushes

After more than 20 years living on outback stations in the rugged West Kimberley, Capel based author Janet Wells has published a book which details the life of her stockman husband.

'They Even Paid Me' is the story of John Wells, a third generation Kimberley stockman, who grew up on a cattle station near Derby during the nineteen forties and fifties. With his inimitable drawl, wry humour and innate ability with stock John Wells is a man once met not easily forgotten. Now in his seventies this is the story of his journey from infancy to manhood, and of his experiences as a ringer, head stockman and station manager on some of the region's best known cattle stations. Set in the days when cattle were wild, conditions tough and communication networks non-existent 'They Even Paid Me' is an accurate and frank account of life as it was for the station worker of those times, of the risks taken, the jokes shared, the hardships endured and the methods used.

The journey from idea to book has been a long one with Mrs Wells taking time out from her South West business "A Touch of Silk" during the past two years to concentrate on writing her husband's story and brining it to print.

The author of two poetry books and "Ready for Anything", a book about her mother-in-law who set up the first Inland Mission in the 1930s, Mrs Wells will share the details of "They Even Paid Me" and her journey writing the book at the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre on Wednesday September 16 from 10am to 11:30am.

Interested people are welcome to attend. You do not have to be a member of the CRC Book Club. To book your place call the CRC on 97643575.

WALKING GREENBUSH-

The weather was perfect for the 2015 Greenbushes Discovery Centre Wattle Walk in August.

People took advantage of the opportunity to take a free guided walk through the forest to view the work being carried out at Schwenke's Dam as part of the Blackwood Basin Group's Priority Bittern and Waterbird Biodiversity Project funded by the Commonwealth Government.

FINDING OUT WHAT'S IN YOUR BACKYARD...

Talison Lithium played host to a large group of local residents in August with the visit of the newly formed Probus Club.

Led by Barbara Johnson, the group attended a site overview with Greenbushes Operations General Manager, Pat Scallan, before taking off on a guided bus tour of the Cornwall Pit and C3 Lookout and the Chemical Grade Processing Plant. For many it was a first time visit to the Greenbushes Mine with some commenting that they did not realise the mine was producing the raw materials for many of the products in their homes.

There are 70 members in the group which holds monthly meetings with guest speakers and regular excursions.

SCIENCE WEEK FUN AT GREENBUSHES CRC

Greenbushes Community Resource Centre was a hive of activity for Science Week with community members participating in a Science Quiz and Morning Tea.

Earlier in July children participating in the School Holiday programme were involved in creating knitted neurons which were used to create a wall display (pictured above) of a giant brain. The neurons at Greenbushes were connected with other projects around Australia as part of National Science Week. Pictured above are people enjoying the Science Week Quiz and morning tea at Greenbushes CRC.

Thank you to Molly Hardy, Edna Fryer and Rosemary Bailey for their help in creating the neurons with the children and setting up the display at the CRC.

OLD TIME MUSIC HALL FUNDRAISER FOR POOL PROJECT

Pristine Entertainment Troupe on stage at Bridgetown

The sparkling theatrical tradition of the Old Time Music Hall provided an entertaining and enjoyable night in August as part of the Bridgetown Swimming Pool Fundraising Project.

Perth based troupe, Pristine Entertainment, who have visited Greenbushes in recent years, put on a fun packed comic show which featured a repertoire of Music Hall favourites.

The event raised more than $3,000 for the pool project.

The next fundraising venture will be a Skills Auction at the Bridgetown Cidery on September 24. The auction will feature the music of popular local entertainer Jodie Boni.

People who would like to donate skills (including home handyman and tradie skills) are asked to contact Pat Scallan on 0427643508. Items are also being sought for a "goods" auction which will be held on the night.

A car raffle is also currently doing the rounds in Bridgetown Greenbushes. Tickets cost $100 with all proceeds going to the fundraising efforts for the new swimming pool.

Thank You

Molly Hardy and the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre would like to say a big 'Thank You' to everyone involved in the recent Memorabilia display; thank you for the loan of your memoirs / articles / historical items and the invaluable help we received in putting the display together.

Best wishes to Shannon and Luke at Tasty Edibles who are in the running for Small Business of the Year in the Manjimup Chamber of Commerce Warren Blackwood Business Awards.

The Shire Administration building redevelopment has now been completed. Staff have moved into their new offices and members of the public can appreciate the redeveloped and friendly front desk service area.

The Bridgetown swimming pool redevelopment continues with a number of fundraising activities planned. Raffle tickets for the 1:300 chance to win a car are available from the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre.

Wandoo walk trail is being developed so it can be sanctioned by the Department of Parks and Wildlife and managed by the Shire. This area is renowned for its spring flowers, including orchids, so go and investigate. New signage is being developed and will be erected in due course. CRC Coordinator's Column

The Management Committee of the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre welcomes Angie Cornish as the new Coordinator of the CRC.

Angie stepped into the role on August 10 and is keen to work with the community to continue with the range of activities at the centre and to develop new services and activities.

Angie has more than 30 years office experience in a wide and diverse range of roles including Finance and Administration Officer at the Bridgetown Camp School and Warren Blackwood District Education Office and School Management Officer at Bridgetown High School.

From 2005 to 2008 Angie worked as an Administration, Production, Dispatch Clerk at Whittaker's Timber Products and is familiar with the district.

Angie and her husband Mike have been actively involved in mentoring young people in the community in the field of squash since moving to the Shire of Bridgetown-Greenbushes in 2003.

Their son Tim and twin daughters Michelle and Emma have achieved State and National recognition in Squash.

Through the years of her children's schooling Angie held volunteer positions with the Bridgetown Swimming Club, the Bridgetown Primary School P and C where she was on the Finance Committee and was actively involved in the WA Squash Junior Committee.

Her hobbies include sport and fitness, art and craft and gardening. Angie looks forward to making a positive difference at the Greenbushes Community Resource Centre, Call in and say Hi!

Thank you to Helen Thistlethwaite for taking on the Acting Coordinator role during the interim.

Knitting / craft group making a difference for charity

Our craft ladies have been busy over the past few months crocheting and knitting, blankets, baby clothes, hats and scarves.

Since June 2015 the knitting club ladies made 88 infant jumpers, 72 small hats and beanies, 13 booties for babies, 35 shoulder wraps, 4 bags, and 6 scarves. In August 2015 they have completed 2 bags for Ruah Services which is an Outreach Centre

These items have recently been donated to the RUAH Centre and Noongar Centre in Perth, to be handed out to families in need and the homeless.

Donations of wool and other items are always welcome and can be dropped off at the Greenbushes CRC during office hours which are 9am to 2:45pm Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday and 9am to 4pm on Wednesdays.

If anyone is interested in joining this group please contact the CRC for additional information. These ladies are doing a great job for worthy causes around our State and new members are always welcome.

NEW POSTS AND SIGNS ON WALK TRAILS

Navigation around the Greenbushes Walk Trails will be made easier by the installation of new blue posts and trail markers.

New A4 safety signage has also replaced damaged or lost signage.

Greenbushes Discovery Centre Chairman Pat Scallan (pictured right) has been installing the new posts and signage on weekends with the Mining Heritage Walk now completed. The other walks will be upgraded in the coming months.

Thank you to the Shire of Bridgetown Greenbushes for the Community Grant which enabled the project to go ahead. The $1865 grant was used to purchase the new signage.

COMMUNITY GARDEN NEWS

Sabrina Hahn is a master gardener, storyteller of note, qualified horticulturalist with a passion for the creation of sustainable urban forests that bring life back into cities. An obsessive gardener, she started landscaping at the age of four: stripping flowers and foliage from her grandmother's yard, creating magical miniature gardens all in her Nan's baking trays. Since then, Sabrina has shared her passion and knowledge with folks all around the world, inspiring them to create meaningful connections with nature through gardening.

Sabrina has shared her stories and passion for green spaces nationally on ABC radio for the past 20 years, being one of the first to promote sustainable gardening practices. She is a highly entertaining public speaker, and MC, she writes a weekly garden column in the West Australian, and also writes for Gardening Australia and Organic Gardener. For the past seven years Sabrina has worked extensively in remote Aboriginal communities in the Kimberley developing community gardens so that Aboriginal people have greater access to healthy food and become more sustainable.

We are looking forward to Sabrina's visit to Greenbushes which is guaranteed to be an entertaining afternoon. She will be chatting to us for 2 hours about her passions and experiences, including the benefits of community gardens, her work in the Kimberley and much more. During the 2 hours we will have a 30 minutes Q&A session and we're asking anyone who would like to ask a question to write it on a piece of paper to pop into the lucky draw box. Lastly, we'll have time for Sabrina to sign your books and she will have a collection of her books for sale on the day, cash only.

We will be selling cuppa's with a piece of cake from 1pm onwards and the money raised will go towards our children's nature-play section of our community garden. Be sure to be seated and ready for a 1.30pm start. Tickets are limited, so we encourage you to pre-purchase your tickets to ensure you don't miss out. Blackwood Basin Group Update

The Priority Bittern and Waterbird Biodiversity Enhancement Project, coordinated by the Blackwood Basin Group (BBG), has continued to make progress with lots of action at the site. The four year project, funded by the Australian Government, aims to create a wetland haven at Schwenke's Dam, Greenbushes, to attract critically endangered waterbirds.

Greenbushes Primary School involvement

The Blackwood Basin Group organised two 'Bush-Block' sessions with the school last month. The first was to collect bugs at the Bush-Block and the second was to transform what was collected at the site into a bug collection using the same methods as used in museums around the world.

"The students relished the opportunity to get out and collect invertebrates and they sure did manage to find a few things that adults would have easily missed" says BBG Project Officer, Joby Rand.

The second session of pinning and preserving specimens gave the students an insight into the life of an entomologist. A big thank you goes to the school for allowing us to work with the students and also special thanks to Lydia Perenzin from Talison Lithium and Leanne Green from Global Advanced Metals for all their help and attendance.

Blackwood Basin Group Update

Open days

The Waterbird Project Open Day is being held in November and we are hoping to build on last year's successful event. Watch this space for further details on the exciting activities we are planning.

The BBG will also have a presence at the Mine Open Day on Sunday, October 4. We will be showcasing our partnership with Talison and the work completed so far, including revegetation, motion-activated cameras and cockatoo nesting boxes.

Fishing competition

With the aim of reducing Red-fin Perch numbers, the BBG is organising a fishing competition at the Greenbushes Pool at the end of October. Participants will need a recreational freshwater angling licence available from the Department of Fisheries at a cost of $40, the season is open from 1 September – 30 June (restrictions apply). The event will be a great chance for people to have fun and have a positive impact on native aquatic fauna. Watch this space for more details.

Winter Weekend

The Winter Weekend saw many visitors to the Community Garden and we were proud to display our macro-invertebrate collection as part of the festivities, we even managed to attract a new volunteer.

Get involved

Community engagement is key to the success of this project. We are on Facebook and are keeping our followers up to date with photos and posts of our activities! Like the Blackwood Basin Group's Facebook page today for updates on programs and workshops running in your local area in the coming months. If you're not on Facebook, you can contact the BBG office on 9765 1555 or email Joby@blackwoodbasingroup.com.au to register your interest in our email updates network or to receive our quarterly hard copy newsletter.

For any further information or to be involved in the project, please contact Joby Rand on 9765 1555 or email Joby@blackwoodbasingroup.com.au.

WESTLINK BROADCASTS

The Westlink Team at the Department of Regional Development have put together an interesting programme for September viewing at your local Community Resource Centre.

There are varied programmes including Cover to Cover for interviews with West Australian writers will be broadcast at 12:30pm on Thursday September 17.

The UWA School of Music Lunchtime Concert Series is also available on the September programme with broadcasts occurring at 2pm on September 17 and 25.

There is also a regional business resilience broadcast on several different dates in September. On September 9 and September 11 the broadcast is available at 9am and at 10am on September 7 and 8. This is great for local businesses in preparing for bushfires or what to do in the aftermath of a bushfire.

For bookings to watch these programmes in comfort at the Greenbushes CRC please call 97643575.

PROPOSED NEW BOOK-WINE-FOOD CLUB

Calling Balingup and Greenbushes Residents
(BALYBUSHES)

Are you interested in being part of a new club
involving BOOKS, WINE and FOOD?

Read books supplied by the WA Library services, try a different wine or food from our region and enjoy the company of like minded people...
